EMORY | SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

School of Medicine Lifetime Service and Leadership Award

The School of Medicine Lifetime Service and Leadership Award has been established by the School of Medicine Recognitions Committee on behalf of the Dean to recognize a faculty member's significant service to Emory University School of Medicine (SOM) through personal activities, influence, and leadership over the course of many years. One award will be given annually.

Deadline: Nominations will be accepted through July 9, 2026.

Eligibility: All current faculty members with a primary appointment in the SOM and a minimum of twenty-five years of service to SOM. Those who have received this award in the past are not eligible. View previous award winners online.

Nominations: Faculty must be nominated by a faculty member, staff member, or trainee of Emory University. The nomination should consist of a concise narrative (1000 words or less) describing the nominee's outstanding and distinguished service to and leadership in the SOM during their tenure at Emory. Service and leadership are expected to go above and beyond what is required for one's role.

Submission: Use the online Award Nomination Form and include the following:

- Nominating letter (1000 words or less)
- Nominee's current Curriculum Vitae

Decision: Will be made by the School of Medicine Recognitions Committee and approved by the Dean.

Award: The recipient of the School of Medicine Lifetime Service and Leadership Award will be announced and honored during the annual Celebration of Faculty Eminence.

Questions should be directed to SOM Office of Faculty Academic Affairs and Professional Development at somfde@emory.edu