Nanette K. Wenger Distinguished Service Award

To recognize Department of Medicine (DOM) faculty who have demonstrated outstanding service and citizenship to Emory and beyond. One award will be given in each of three faculty ranks:

- Assistant Professor
- Associate Professor
- Professor

Deadline: The deadline for all faculty awards nominations is June 23, 2025.

Eligibility: All regular, full-or part-time Assistant Professors, Associate Professors, and Professors with a primary appointment in the DOM at Emory University are eligible unless they have received this award within the previous 3 years.

Nominations: All faculty members must be nominated by another full-time or part-time faculty member, Service Chief, or Division Director. A concise, one-page narrative describing the specific aspects of exemplary service to the School of Medicine and the DOM should be included in the nomination. Nomination for this award does not preclude nomination for other DOM awards in the same year.

Examples of outstanding service include:

- Service to house staff such as work in resident interviews, recruitment, and support
- Service to students such as program development for student support or sponsoring clerkships
- Service to patients
- Important administrative service to the Department despite heavy clinical and/or research demands
- Service to the community via public education programs or campaigns, volunteerism, or non-profit organizations
- Exemplary service to underserved populations
- Development of new or innovative programs that are recognized by the University or School of Medicine as representative of outstanding service by the DOM

Submission:

- One-page nomination letter including name and contact information of faculty member being nominated.
- Font Size: 11 pt font minimum
- Spacing: Single-spaced
