

Are you participating in an observational study for people at risk for ALS/FTD?

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU

We are conducting a study to learn more about the emotional experience of people at risk for ALS/FTD who are participating in observational research. 60 minute Zoom interviews will be conducted with each participant.

You are eligible if

- You are 18+ years old
- You are fluent in English
- You have received genetic testing for ALS/FTD and were identified as a mutation carrier, or have opted out of receiving genetic testing results
- You are participating in an observational study for asymptomatic ALS/FTD mutation carriers (including PICALS, Pre-fALS, DIALS, & ALLFTD)

You are not eligible if

- You have not yet undergone genetic testing
- You have undergone testing, but you do not have a mutation that predisposes you to ALS/FTD
- You are participating in a clinical trial with the prospect of a research drug (for example, the ATLAS study)
