

Tentative Course Schedule*

Year/Month	Session
YEAR 1
September	Module 0: GLOBE Introductory Module and Culture Box (asynchronous)
October	Meet and Greet/Retreat with previous cohort GLOBE Track residents
November	Virtual Meeting – Module 0
November and December	Module 1: Defining Global Health and Understanding its History (asynchronous)
January	In-person/virtual session – Module 1
January and February	Module 2: Social Determinants of Health and Sustainable Development Goals (asynchronous)
March	In-person/virtual session – Module 2
March and April	Module 3: Global Health Systems Strengthening (asynchronous)
June	In-person/virtual session – Module 3
June – August	Module 4: Health Equity, Ethics and Climate Change (asynchronous)
September	In-person/virtual session – Module 4
October	All-day retreat
YEAR 2+
October onwards	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Independent and Interdisciplinary study (Simulation Labs, Project Design, Interdisciplinary Forums) • Capstone project (Local/global projects)

* Adjunct meetings will occur at individual departmental track level, to supplement interdisciplinary learning with specialty-specific global health topics.

 Meetings to be in-person or virtual based on COVID-19 restrictions or concerns