

Dear Ethics Course Participant:

The upcoming classes for the OPE ethics course (Responsible Conduct of Research; syllabus attached) begins 2/4/25 and will be held in:

Emory Center for Innovation at The Hatchery, Room 121/123 (1578 Avenue Place, Suite 200, Atlanta, GA 30329).

Below are some things to consider when planning your transportation.

WALKING TIMES to The Hatchery:

- From Houston Mill & Clifton intersection: about 5 minutes.
- From pedestrian bridge: about 10 minutes.
- From Woodruff Memorial Research Bldg: about 15 minutes.

SHUTTLES:

- Please review the attached map of shuttle routes.
- Information on specific routes can be found on the Dept of Transportation & Parking Services website.
- Use the “Passio GO!” system to track your shuttle in real time. Or you can download the app through the QR code below.

PARKING:

- Alternately, if you plan to drive, you may park in the Emory Point garage across from The Hatchery and have your parking validated for up to 3 hours.

ENTRANCE:

- Please review the attached picture to familiarize yourself with the entrance to the building.

DATES:

Tuesdays:

- February 4
- February 11
